

MPHSA Meeting 11-13-24

- Holiday celebration / changes to food policy discussion – email was sent out by Karen
 - Action: Following up on who the email was sent out to, to confirm that everyone received it.
 - Action: MPHSA to get a list of aides for each classroom.
- Stock the Teachers Room – MPHSA placed order from Costco (under $1k) all shipped to Jessica Hayes house, sorted and delivered to Mountain Way and Borough School.
 - Action: Send communication to let parents know.
- Holiday Collection for teachers – room parents to send out emails for communication
- Membership increase, more people joining MPHSA.
 - 90 members $1,800
- Mountain Way Book Fair over $5K total sales, bought 76 books for the school (4 per class)
 - Sign up genius went well – increase the Spring to 4-5 volunteers per class.
- Mountain Way ribbon cutting conflicts with Basketball opening day
 - Action: Let MW know about conflict
- Borough Book Fair 12/2-12/5 – flyers will go out shortly. Holiday night 6-8pm.
- Scoops Station – 24 pies, $120 back to MPHSA
- Regalo – Holiday sip and shop 12/4 from 6-8pm
 - Mom's night out idea
- MP Winter Market 11/30/24
 - Luminaries – TBD on if it will be at the market. Marissa is putting together packet and pricing.
 - Small business Saturday. Thanksgiving
- 50/50 Raffle
 - Raffles will be sold at the Morris Plains basketball games; sign up genius to come.
- Pure Barre – Reached out to Beth; she is happy to donate her time to teach the class and use the studio; can hold up to 20 people – 30 minute class – fundraiser.
 - Barre & Bar – out for drinks after
 - Date in January TBD, Thursday night, $25 pricing idea.
- Duck Donuts Fundraiser – Duck Donuts in Whippany very excited to partner with Morris Plains; higher quality than Krispy Kreme. On Valentine's day, $25 per dozen cost.
- School Spirit Wear –
 - Alfred's donated their time and designs for new items.
- December meeting to be cancelled
- January celebration after the mtg.
- MPHSA spending history and budget to be available at the January meeting.
 - How much we spent and budget
- Communication
 - Quarterly/ Semi-annual newsletter to announce what has the HSA done